

We're beachy-keen about Orlando-Melbourne, Florida.

The Porter route map is extending further south to Orlando-Melbourne International Airport, located on Florida's central east coast. So whether you plan to work on your golf swing, relax by the beach or take the kids to a theme park, your getaway to Orlando-Melbourne is whatever you want it to be.

Seasonal service from downtown Toronto starts December 19, with one weekly flight.

Orlando's major attractions, including theme parks, are accessible via the I-95 within an hour's drive.

Melbourne Beach: 15 min

Cocoa Beach: 30 min

Port Canaveral/ Cruise ships: less than 45 min

Kennedy Space Center: 45 min

Vero Beach: 50 min

Kissimmee: 1 hour

Fort Pierce: 1 hour

Disney / Universal and other Orlando attractions: 1 hour, to 1 hour, 15 min

Contact your TRAVELSAVERS agent today for your sunny getaway to Orlando-Melbourne.