

porter

New York City

New York City in the fall is always a treat and with up to 12 flights daily with Porter, you'll never miss out on the action. When it comes to comedy, you'll enjoy a good laugh at the Jimmy Fallon show or Live with Kelly & Michael. If sports are more your thing, New York has some of the best sports teams around, from the Knicks to the Rangers. Watching a sporting event at the legendary Madison Square Gardens is an unforgettable experience you won't want to miss. Below are some of the events you can catch in October and November.

NYC Wine & Food Festival, New York City, 10/15-18

Work up an appetite for this four day event with the city's best wine, food and spirits along with celebrity chefs that'll cook up something fierce for your taste buds.

Village Halloween Parade, New York City, 10/31

Those in costume are invited to join hundreds of puppets and dancers, dozens of bands and thousands of New Yorkers on the 6th Avenue parade route between Spring and Broome Streets.

New York City Marathon, New York City, 11/1

Over 100,000 world-class athletes and first timers cover 26.2 miles of NYC streets. You'll feel like a movie star as you pass along two million cheering fans and a TV audience of 300 million. Start training now!

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, New York City, 11/26

One of the most famous holiday events in the world, it defines the start of the holiday season with celebrities, Broadway performers, enormous balloon creatures and the official arrival of Santa.

Just contact your TRAVELSAVERS agent to book your Porter flight today and fall in love with New York City!