Mazatlán (mah-saht-LAHN) is a destination with a split personality. Despite the importance of its visitor industry, Mazatlán remains very much its own city. The pleasant weather and all the tourism services make the city the perfect destination for your wedding.

Mazatlán is closer to the USA than it is to Mexico City. Thanks to fabulous deep-sea fishing, it was one of the country's first resorts to attract international visitors. It is a "working" resort that doubles as one of the country's busiest seaports and doubles as home base for Mexico's largest shrimp fleet, so guess what heads most menus! Rough and ready, it attracts sports minded travelers who like a casual lifestyle.

Only 745 miles South from Arizona, on the Pacific Coast, Mazatlán is an authentic non-tourist type beach destination, very appropriate for couples who want a genuine Mexican destination to plan their wedding, honeymoon or romantic trip. You will find that Mazatlán comprises two zones: Old Mazatlán and Zona Dorada. Zona Dorada is a modern area with beach hotels and restaurants. A much-appreciated feature of Mazatlán is the charm and vitality of it's the Old Mazatlán, with art schools, galleries, restaurants and bars where every evening one can enjoy live performances of local and foreign musicians.

Share your moment with family and friends and capture the very essence of one of life's most magical moments or if you want to have your honeymoon in Mazatlán, you can visit our historic downtown, where you can admire galleries, museums, the Angela Peralta theater, the cathedral, or enjoy hiking, bird-watching or aquatic sports; visit "El Quelite" a beautiful little town, or go to "Las Labradas" an archaeological site.

In 1940's when Hollywood discovered Mazatlán, US visitors became the engine for the development of good quality hotels, resorts, golf and tennis courses and an excellent nightlife. Mazatlán nicely balances its double identity as Mexico's largest West Coast port with being one of the country's most popular beach resorts. Mazatlán is Mexico's second largest coastal city (after Acapulco), with nearly 700,000 inhabitants. It has the largest port facility between Los Angeles and the Panama Canal, and is home to Latin America's biggest fleet of commercial shrimp vessels.
