UNPARALLELED DESTINATION FOR LUXURY ACCOMMODATIONS

Nestled between The National Mall and The Wharf, Salamander Washington DC is the closest luxury hotel in the district to Ronald Reagan National Airport and a short walk from two major metro stations. The 373 spacious guestrooms, including 51 suites, offer cityscape or water views, separate walk-in showers and deep-soaking bathtubs with designer amenities. For added relaxation and wellness, guests can enjoy the indoor pool and state-of-the-art fitness center.

CULINARY EXPERIENCES

Experience the vibrant flavors of Washington, D.C. and the culinary heritage of Chef Kwame Onwuachi in the new restaurant, Dōgon. For a relaxed yet refined experience, guests can savor daily local cuisine and signature cocktails in The Lounge or on the picturesque Lounge Terrace overlooking the Washington Marina. From here, guests can access an exclusive footbridge for a five-minute walk to The Wharf's vibrant mile-long dining scene.
