Loews Hotels & Co Reimagines Three Iconic Properties

Loews Hotels & Co is committed to providing exceptional experiences, and that commitment is evident in the recent and upcoming refreshments and renovations unveiled across three of its iconic properties. These transformations represent a significant investment in enhancing guest comfort, style, and functionality, ensuring Loews Hotels remains a leader in the hospitality industry.

Loews Ventana Canyon Resort, Tucson, AZ:

The resort's 398 rooms and suites have been redesigned to reflect the Sonoran Desert's beauty while offering modern amenities. A refreshed Lakeside Spa + Fitness complements recent dining outlet renovations and a new event lawn, bringing total event space to 83,000 square feet. The lobby-level Cascade Lounge will also be modernized, solidifying the resort's position as a premier destination in Tucson.

Loews Miami Beach Hotel, Miami Beach, FL:

In 2025, all 790 rooms will be completely redesigned by Meyer Davis, creating an oceanfront oasis of upscale comforts with refreshed interiors, new flooring, and redesigned bathrooms. This significant investment underscores Loews Miami Beach Hotel's dedication to providing an unmatched resort experience in one of the nation's most coveted destinations.

Loews Chicago Hotel, Chicago, IL:

Meeting and public spaces are being transformed with a bright, modern aesthetic. The refreshed meeting spaces will offer a dynamic environment for events, while public areas will become more welcoming gathering places. This renovation underscores Loews Chicago Hotel's quest to deliver exceptional service and an unmatched meeting experience in a truly transformative setting.
